HOUSE RULES

General Rules

- 1) Nevada Revised Statutes 463.350 prohibits persons under the age of 21 from wagering, collecting winning wagers, or loitering in and/or about the Race and Sports Book area. Accepting wagers, via communications technologies, outside the state of Nevada is strictly prohibited.
- 2) All prices/lines are subject to change.
 - a) Wagering options, other than wagers on In-Running markets, are available up until the official start time, unless otherwise specified by Management.
 - b) Any wager accepted after the official start time, other than In-Running wagers, will be declared void.
- 3) Management assumes responsibility for paying the mandatory 0.25% Federal Excise Wagering Tax required by law for wagering on sporting events.
- 4) Management will make every reasonable effort to resolve disputes.
 - a) Any dispute shall be resolved per Nevada Revised Statutes 463.361 and 463.366 and Nevada Gaming Commission Regulation 7A.
 - b) It is the customer's responsibility to inform CG Technology immediately should an error occur on an account, any wager, or in any other transaction.
 - c) Any funds/winnings credited to an account in error are not available for use.
 - i) Management reserves the right to void any transaction involving said funds.
- 5) Management reserves the right to refuse any wager or delete or limit any selection(s) prior to the acceptance of any Race or Sports wager.
- 6) Management reserves the right to determine minimum and maximum wager limits on all events, including on a wager by wager basis.
- 7) Management reserves the right to modify the Race & Sports Book House Rules, subject to regulatory approval.
- 8) Management reserves the right to modify payout odds/ limits. In the event of a change, the new odds/limits will be posted in the Race and Sports Book, or made available on betting sheets prior to taking any wagers with the revised limits.
- 9) Management is not responsible for lost, stolen, altered, or unreadable tickets.
- 10) By opening a wagering account, the customer acknowledges reading, understanding, and accepting CG Technology's Terms and Conditions.

CG TECHNOLOGY RACE & SPORTS BOOK

HOUSE RULES

- 11) By placing a wager, the customer acknowledges reading, understanding, and accepting CG Technology's House Rules.
- 12) Personal communication devices, including, without limitation, cell phones, may be used in the Race and Sports Book for non-gaming related communications.
 - a) Management prohibits the use of personal communication devices on the property in which to transmit or relay gaming related information, including but not limited to, wagering information, line information, point spreads, wagers, and other gaming related information.
 - i) Management reserves the right to remove anyone from the property who, in Management's sole discretion, judgment, or opinion, is using a personal communication device to transmit or relay gaming information.
 - ii) This does not apply to the use of our mobile device wagering application.
- 13) CG Technology cannot be held liable for failure of any equipment, wherever physically located, which prevents the placement of wagers or contact with our offices.
- 14) CG Technology only accepts account wagers made with the funds available in the account holder's wagering account.
- 15) Unless otherwise specified In-Running wagers are available on account only.
- 16) Entity Wagering may only be completed via account based wagering. Unless otherwise specified, all House Rules apply to Entity Wagering.
- 17) Sports and Pari-Mutuel over-the-counter (OTC) wagers are void 180 days from the date of the event.
- 18) Please check your wagers for accuracy.
 - a) OTC wagers must be reviewed PRIOR to leaving the Race and Sports Book window. Leaving the window with the ticket is deemed an acceptance of the wager by both parties.
 - b) Account based wagers must be reviewed in the Active Bets/Bet History section upon being submitted in order to verify the wager was successfully transmitted and the details are accurate.
 - i) The customer should notify CG Technology immediately regarding any error or discrepancy.
 - c) CG Technology accepts no responsibility for wagers which may have been submitted and not confirmed by our systems.
 - d) Once both parties accept a wager, the details will not be altered, and the wager will not be voided prior to the start of an event, except at the discretion of Management, and with the approval of both parties.
 - e) Wagers may only be rescinded with the approval of the Chairman of the Nevada State Gaming Control Board. (Regulation 22.115)

CG TECHNOLOGY RACE & SPORTS BOOK

HOUSE RULES

- 19) Payoffs on all wagers are determined using standard Money Line calculations, unless otherwise specified.
- a) Final calculations are rounded to the nearest penny.
- 20) A straight wager resulting in a push will be considered “no action” and the original stake will be refunded.
- 21) Parlay Wagers:
- a) Payoffs on parlay wagers are determined using standard Money Line calculations.
 - b) Pushes and refunds in a parlay cause the wager to reduce the payoff bracket representing the number of remaining teams. If the parlay reduces to just a single game, the single game becomes a straight wager.
 - c) Maximum parlay payoff limit is 299:1
 - i) In the event a parlay exceeds the maximum payoff limit, the price of each leg of the parlay is adjusted to set the total payout equal to 299:1.
 - ii) In the event a parlay that exceeded the limit where the payoff was reduced to 299:1 has a push, the patron will be paid using the system’s adjusted prices and not the original prices of the parlay prior to adjusting to 299:1.
 - (a) *Mathematical formula is available upon request.
- 22) Teasers:
- a) Pushes and refunds in an off-the-board teaser wager cause the wager to reduce to the payoff bracket representing the number of remaining teams.
 - i) In the event only one team remains:
 - (1) A teaser reduced to a single wager is considered “no action” and will be refunded.
 - (2) “no action” and will be refunded.
 - (3) If all teams push/refund, the wager is considered “no action” and will be refunded.
- 23) Parlay and Teaser Cards – Please refer to the physical card and/or sheet for relevant rules/pricing governing each individual card.
- 24) Winning tickets may be mailed to CG Technology for redemption. See the reverse side of the wagering ticket for instructions and mailing address.
- 25) Winning tickets may be subject to IRS reporting and withholding guidelines.
- 26) Payoffs exceeding $50,000 may be delayed for 24 hours after the next banking day.
- 27) Any rules written on handouts for specific events are considered House Rules. Any event rules posted to the Sports Book website are considered House Rules.

HOUSE RULES

28) Wagering rules and conditions are subject to change; please refer to odds sheets/displays for details. If there is a conflict between a stipulation on an odds sheet/display and these House Rules, the stipulation on the odds sheet/display will prevail.

Auto Racing

- 1) Unless otherwise specified, wagers are accepted for drivers only.
- 2) The race must run within seven days of the scheduled date to be considered “action”.
- 3) For wagering purposes the start of a race is defined as when the first car crosses the start/finish line and the green flag drops.
- 4) The order of finish at the conclusion of the race determines all wager results.
- 5) Match-up wagers:
 - a) Participants in event match-ups must start the event, or the wager is considered “no action” and will be refunded.
 - b) The winner of match-up wagers is based on the order of finish at the conclusion of the race.
- 6) The winner, at the conclusion of the event, as determined by the governing organization of the event (e.g. national association, sanction body, board, etc.), will also be declared the winner for wagering purposes.
 - a) The conclusion of the event occurs when the race finishes and a winner is declared, even without all laps being completed. For example, weather related early conclusions.
- 7) Future wagers are considered “action” as long as a winner is officially declared, regardless of event relocation, rained out events, season length, etc., unless otherwise specified.
 - a) No refunds on all future/advance book wagers.
 - b) Future wagers are considered action whether the selected driver starts or not.

Baseball/Softball

- 1) Definition of wagering types:
 - a) Action: A wager on Team vs Team regardless of starting pitchers.
 - i) Unless otherwise specified, only full game Money Lines are permitted to be placed in this manner.
 - ii) In the event of a pitching change, all wagers already placed in this manner will be adjusted to the opening price for the new pitcher.

CG TECHNOLOGY RACE & SPORTS BOOK

HOUSE RULES

- b) Listed: A wager in which both specified pitchers must start (throw the first pitch) to be considered “action”.
 - i) All wagers, except full game Money Lines, must be placed in this manner, unless otherwise specified
 - (1) Full game Money Lines have the option to be placed in this manner, but are not required.
- c) Team vs Pitcher or Pitcher vs Team: A wager on or against the specified pitcher. The specified pitcher must start (throw the first pitch) to be considered “action”.
 - i) Only full game Money Lines may be placed in this manner, unless otherwise specified.
 - ii) In the event of a pitching change for the specified team, all wagers already placed in this manner will be adjusted to the opening price of the new pitcher.
- 2) If a game is called or postponed after 5 full innings, the winner is determined by the score after the last full inning, unless the home team scores to tie or take the lead in the bottom half of the inning.
- 3) Money Line wagers are considered “action” after 5 completed innings, or 4 ½ innings if the home team is winning.
- 4) For all Run-line (spread) and Total wagers to be considered “action”, the game must go 9 full innings or 8 ½ innings, if the home team is winning.
 - a) If a game goes into extra innings, but does not finish (i.e. suspended, curfew (MLB rule 4.12(1), etc.) Run-line and total wagers are considered “action”.
- 5) 1st 5 innings: If a game does not go 5 full innings, all wagers are considered “no action”.
- 6) All games must be played on the date specified. If a game is postponed and/or rescheduled, wagers will be considered “no action” unless otherwise specified on the wagering sheets or odds boards.
 - a) MLB Playoffs/World Series:
 - i) In the case of a suspended playoff game, the game must resume within a span of 96 hours and be completed to be considered “action”.
- 7) Future wagers are considered “action” as long as a winner is officially declared, regardless of event/team relocation, rained out events, season length, etc., unless otherwise specified.
 - a) No refunds on future/advanced book wagers.
- 8) NCAA Baseball Rules: MLB wagering rules apply, including scheduled 7 inning events, except for the following:
 - a) If a Run Ahead or Mercy rule is invoked, games are considered “action”.
 - b) If a regular season game ends in a tie, Money Line wagers will be considered a push.
 - c) All wagers are considered “action” regardless of the pitchers who start.

CG TECHNOLOGY RACE & SPORTS BOOK

HOUSE RULES

- 1) All games must be played on the date and location specified. If a game is postponed and/or rescheduled, wagers will be considered “no action”, unless otherwise specified on the wagering sheets or odds boards.
- 2) When wagering on Totals and Halftime markets, overtime periods are counted in the final score.
- 3) For wagering purposes, Full Game and Second Half wagers, including totals, are official after:
 - a) Professional: 43 minutes of play.
 - b) College: 35 minutes of play.
 - c) For wagering on periods, i.e. quarters and halves, if the entire game is not completed, quarters and halves will be considered “no action” unless:
 - i) The relevant period is completed; OR
 - ii) The game reaches the time stated above.
- 4) Future wagers are considered “action” as long as a winner is officially declared, regardless of event/team relocation, rained out events, season length, etc., unless otherwise specified.
 - a) No refunds on future/advanced book wagers.

Boxing/ Mixed Martial Arts (MMA)

- 1) For wagering purposes, matches are considered “action”, regardless of scheduled length, once the bell (buzzer, etc.) sounds, signifying the start of the opening round.
- 2) A full round is defined as one in which the bell (buzzer, etc.) sounds, signifying the conclusion of said round.
 - a) If a fighter is counted out or the bout is officially stopped prior to the next bell (buzzer, etc.), the round is not considered for wagering purposes.
 - b) A half round is defined as the scheduled round length divided by two. For example, 1:30 into the 6th round of a 3 minute per round fight is considered 5 1/2 rounds for wagering purposes.
- 3) All wagers are considered “action” regardless of any changes in weight class, scheduled length of the bout, or championship sanction, unless otherwise specified.
- 4) Knock Out (KO) proposition wagers:
 - a) All round and KO proposition wagers are considered “no action” if the scheduled length of the bout changes.
 - b) KO includes knockout and technical knockouts.
- 5) If no winner is declared, all wagers are considered “no action”, unless otherwise specified.

CG TECHNOLOGY RACE & SPORTS BOOK

HOUSE RULES

- 6) Three-way Money Line: The draw option of the wager is considered a winner if the bout is considered a draw at the conclusion of the fight.
 - a) Wagers on either fighter in this scenario are considered a loss.
